

Travel and Accommodation Grant for Ph.D. Students

The M3 Center for Hospitality Technology and Innovation (M3 Center) is pleased to announce the Travel and Accommodation Grant for Ph.D. Students for Global Conference on Business and Economics (GLOBE 2021). The Travel and Accommodation Grant will cover the conference registration fee, cost of flight tickets for travel from your home city (home country) to the conference location and back, cost of accommodation near the conference venue for all days of the conference up to maximum award amount of $1,500 in total. If the conference convenes entirely online because the COVID-19 pandemic is not contained or because of any other unforeseen circumstances, the Travel and Accommodation Grant awards will cover only the conference registration fee.

The Travel and Accommodation Grant Award will be granted to three Ph.D. students who are

- enrolled in their Ph. D. program during Fall 2021;
- received the manuscript/abstract acceptance to the GLOBE2021 conference.

To apply for the Travel and Accommodation Grant:

- 1) Submit your abstract/manuscript to the GLOBE2021 conference by the submission deadline.
- 2) After you receive acceptance notification, email an application for the grant in PDF format to info@m3center.org with the subject "GLOBE Travel Grant."

In the application, please indicate your name, university, college, school, department, short bio (not more than 150 words), the title of the manuscript/abstract accepted to the conference, and estimation of flight tickets cost for travel from your home city (home country) to the conference location and back. Please attach the GLOBE2021 conference acceptance notice in the email with your application.

The Travel and Accommodation Grant applications and the corresponding abstracts/manuscripts will be sent to the selection committee. The committee will select three the best manuscripts/abstracts for the Travel and Accommodation Grant awards. The grant applicants will be informed about the selection committee's decision regarding the awards before August 28, 2021.
